VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1868. NO. 264.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Chicago Times.

THE PEACE HE WANTS.

It is presumable that when Grant said, in his letter of acceptance, "Let us have peace," he meant something by it. It was equivalent to saying the nation is not now at peace. He said with peace would come prosperity.

He was addressing the Jacobin party.—He asked that party for peace. It must, therefore, be assumed that he held the party responsible for the war which he deprecates and which he wishes to end. It is not a civil war, but it is some sort of a war which Grant thinks ought not to go on. He therefore says to one of the belligerent parties, "Let us have peace."

It is nonsense to suppose that he referred to the war between the democratic and Jacobin parties, because he knew that in all republican governments there must exist two political parties. He was not asking the Jacobins to cease fighting the Democratic party; for it is only by the continuance of that contest he can hope to be elected President. It is true that his conversion from Democracy to Jacobinism has been so recent that he may yet regard his former political associates with favor; but, for all that, he does not ask for peace with them. He will not do so until the results of the November elections shall show him that, in becoming a political apostate, he has sold his manhood for a worse than barren honor.

The national cemeteries and the national debt attest the sacrifices the people have made to obtain peace on the basis of the Union and Constitution. It seems they have not got it. If the South is a conquered province, there should be peace. Did not "order reign in Warsaw" when Russia conquered Poland? It the Southern States are States in the Union, there should be peace. If they are under civil government, law should rule there. If they are under military despotism, the sternness of the tyranny should insure order. Grant does not himself know under which one of these conditions of government those States now exist, yet he seems to be conscious that peace does not reign in those States, and he asks the Jacobin party to restore her to these distracted communities.

Does he expect that a continuance of the policies which have brought about and maintained the anarchical condition he refers to will bring back order, and prosperity, and the rule of law? It would seem so from his letter. He asks for peace, and indorses the measures which began and yet sustain the war. It is the "reconstruction" infamy which prevents peace. He says he will, if elected, enforce that infamy. This statement discloses the means by which he expects to obtain peace, and the kind of peace he invokes and to which he looks forward. He professes to regret the disturbed state of the country, yet pledges himself to sustain the causes of disturbance, knowing that thereby he will assist to retard the return of the peace he asks for. In this it is not easy to characterize the mixture of absurdity and demagogism in his letter of acceptance.

He wants the peace of the "reconstruction" infamy. Suppose the Southern States be readmitted under the things called constitutions, born of that hideous spawn of perjury, will there be order and quiet at the South? Will their admission under negro rule bring peace? How is negro rule now maintained in the South? Will the people who oppose as well as they can the establishment of a government over them by fraud and force, and one which makes them subject to an inferior and degraded race become quiet citizens of that government when relieved from the presence of the military?

Grant wants in all the Southern States the peace which Tennessee enjoys under Brownlow. Every atrocity alleged against the Confederates in that State by the Jacobin press could be proven against them, their crimes would then be infinitely less than are daily perpetrated by the villainous organization known as the State government of Tennessee. Lawlessness has possession of the State, because the Jacobins murdered law in imposing on the people the Brownlow dynasty. Now Union soldiers are there to shield the assassins and perpetuate their crimes. This is the kind of peace Grant invokes.

THE ISRAELITES MOVING.

The Israelites have not forgotten or forgiven the order issued by General Grant in 1862 when in command of the Department of the Tennessee. It was dated Oxford, Mississippi, December 17, 1862. That order charged "the Jews" with violating "every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department, also Department orders," and pronounced their expulsion from the Department within twenty-four hours after the receipt of the order by post commanders. It provided as follows: "No passes will be given this people to visit headquarters for the purpose of making personal applications for trade permits."

A St. Louis paper publishes a long card, signed by about two hundred Israelites of that city, in which the order referred to is reproduced and denounced. The signers, disclaiming anything of a partisan spirit, protest that while some are Radicals, some Conservatives and some Democrats, all agree in the determination to oppose General Grant's election. The card thus concludes:

"Shall we as Israelites vote for such a man? Will the 2,300 votes from Israelites in this city help make a President with the name of U. S. Grant, who, attaining power by accident, issued an order expelling all Israelites, whether guilty or not, from his department, merely because they were Israelites? Hardly can we believe that, in view of this insult, and unrevoked as the outrage stands, there will be one low enough found in our midst to think of it. Without being prophets, we hazard the prediction that there will be as few Israelitic votes cast for General Grant next November as he had occasion to make arrests under his infamous order."

The feeling expressed in the above is the feeling that must animate the whole Hebrew population of the United States, and the probability is that they will vote as a unit against General Grant.

[From the Macon (Ga.) Journal & Messenger, 5th.

PLUCKY WOMEN.—Mr. —— is the scalawag Senator elect from the Senatorial district composed of the counties of ——. He is a full-blown radical, and loves a negro as much as he hates a "rebel." He goes in of course not only for political but social equality, and repudiates not only at the ballot box but in his household all distinctions founded upon race or color.

Acting upon this theory, he has brought one of his constituents to great grief. Said constituent called to see him not long ago, and dinner being announced as ready before he left, he was invited to a seat at the Senator's hospitable board. He accepted the invitation, and, walking in, plumped himself on a chair by the side of a daughter of his host. It was the rashest act of his life. The next thing he knew he was lying upon the floor where he had been knocked by a chair, in the indignant woman's hands.—Her mother reinforced her, and such a mauling as that darkey got makes the bones ache to write about. The old rapscallion who got him into the trouble stood by all this time, not daring to say a word. When they finished with the darkey they turned to the white man, and telling him that they would not live with one who sought thus to degrade them, packed up what they needed and left the house. They are boarding around among the neighbors, and find a hearty welcome wherever they go. We propose their health with all the honors. Hip! hip! hurrah!

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY
OF THE WAR,
ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.
By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.
A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, to promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order, The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, owing to its character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Boston, Mass., 103 subscribers in four days.

One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 subscribers in five days.

CONGRESSIONAL ACTION.

Our telegraphic news on Saturday morning, as we expected, gave the intelligence of the passage of the Omnibus bill, admitting North Carolina, with other States, to representation in Congress, upon certain conditions. The majority in favor of the measure leaves no ground to expect that the Presidential veto will avail anything; we therefore expect that, unless the President desires to make a record upon some new point, not hitherto noticed in his previous vetoes, he will retain the bill the usual time, in order that it may become a law without his signature. The expectation on the part of some, that he will sign the bill, seeing that opposition is useless, is not warranted by anything the President has said or done, and would indicate that he had abandoned the high ground he has heretofore assumed, in regard to the plan of Congressional reconstruction.

Within a short time, therefore, we may expect the inauguration of the new dispensation of government forced upon the Southern States by Congress, by the instalment of the new officers elected and the assembling of the Legislature. No impediment created by the status of the officers elect, or dependent upon a proper construction of the acts of Congress, will, we presume, be allowed to interfere with the new order of things.

Those who are opposed to the principles of the new Constitution, or to the officers appointed to execute it, by a manly and consistent effort, and in a legitimate way, endeavored to defeat them. From the moment it was ascertained that Radicalism had prevailed over Conservatism in the election, by fraudulent and illegitimate means, as most believe, there has been an universal acceptance of the results of the election by all the Conservative people, and a determination to endure, what they could not cure, by an honest and legitimate effort.

The intimations thrown out by the Radical presses, and in the verbal slanders of carpet-baggers and scallawags, that the Conservatives were boiling over with rage against them,—that they were bent upon revenge,—or that any of them were disposed to gratify malice against individuals, are wholly false and without a shadow of foundation. The only revenge which any Conservative desires to gratify, is the entire reversal of Radical principles and Radical designs and Radical doings in North Carolina, whenever it can be done at the ballot-box. That the day will come, when this will be done, we have no doubt, and its coming will be the sooner and the more certain, just in proportion as the Radicals are vindictive or domineering or oppressive in their course. The only possible chance for Radicalism to maintain itself in this State, is by the exercise of prudence and forbearance to their opponents, and by showing, if possible, ability and disposition to promote the peace and the prosperity of all classes and conditions of the people. An opposite course will only unite, more determinedly and persistently, all the elements of opposition to Radicalism in the State.

"A LIE well STUCK-TO is as good as the truth" seems to be the motto of those creatures who are constantly endeavoring to inflame the minds of Congress and of the people of the North against the true white men of the South, by silly and malicious stories of persecution of "loyalists," outrages by "rebels," &c. The utter and base falsehood of these stories is only equalled by the mean, malevolent, degraded and cowardly spirit which prompts them. The contemptible malice of these calumny-venders,—and it may be added, the avidity of the Northern Jacobins to gulp down their lies, however infamous or monstrous,—blind the whole crew to the logical sequence of their slanders, viz:

If there be the state of things in the South, which they describe, they are responsible for its existence and its non-suppression. The Radical party set up military tyrannies in the South, with unlimited powers, and ample men and resources at command. If crime and outrage are flagrant in the land, the Radical politico-military governments in the States of the South have been corrupt and remiss in their duties in allowing such things, and are, therefore, not only egregious and confessed failures, but actual aiders at this "oppression and persecution of Union men!"

The truth is that these creatures have guilty consciences. They find that they deserve execration, and their waking and sleeping visions are phantomed with all sorts of horrors.

DURING THE WAR, Grant was first approached with the tempting offer of a nomination for the Presidency. He replied that he did not want any civil office; that he did not know anything about politics, and did not expect ever to learn anything about them; that there was but one office within the gift of the people that he would like; and, when the war should be over, he intended to run for Mayor of Galena, "in order to have a side-walk built from his house to the post-office." Doubtless, he had another object in view,—the repeal of municipal ordinances (if there are any) preventing fast-driving in the streets. From the way Galena voted the other day, however, Grant would have stood a poor chance, even for Mayor in his own town.

THE PUTATIVE Legislature elect of Louisiana is so destitute of a local habitation and a name, that a General Order has been issued by the District Commander, calling for the post-office address, &c., of its members.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The business of Life Insurance, from small beginnings, has grown to be one of the most successful and important enterprises of this age and country. It is probable that the aggregate assets of the Insurance Companies of the United States now exceed several hundred millions, and the annual tax for insurance upon the people of the United States equals the annual tax of the government for revenue. Where Insurance Companies are conducted upon proper principles, it is not only a legitimate business, but one in which the people at large have a great stake. Amid the constant fluctuations of wealth in this country, where many are rich to-day and poor to-morrow, Life Insurance becomes a positive duty, and a necessity to every one who has the responsibilities of a family or other dependents, who may be reduced to want upon his or her demise.

In this State, Life Insurance has been prosecuted with great vigor by the various Companies which have established agencies among us, since the war. The business has increased enormously. All the Companies have a good reputation for promptness and reliability and many of our citizens have been profitably employed as Agents. We have heard it estimated that $1,000,000 are now paid annually for premiums on life insurance, most of which is sent out of the State, to be returned again at intervals in the payment of losses.

Our readers will observe that notice has been given, in our columns, that application will be made to the approaching General Assembly for a charter for the North Carolina Life Assurance, Annuity and Trust Company. The idea is an admirable one, and the principle upon which it is proposed to operate will commend it to the favorable consideration of the people. Many of our most substantial citizens will doubtless connect themselves with the enterprise. Up to the beginning of the war, the Life Insurance and Mutual Fire Insurance Companies of this State were doing well. Their responsibility was undoubted and their business was rapidly extending. If the results of the war proved fatal to them, they only shared the misfortunes of all others affected by that unfortunate event. We think the time has arrived when similar institutions should be revived among us, based upon undoubted responsibility and conducted upon safe principles.

WAKE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Numbers of our people express themselves warmly in favor of forming a County Agricultural Society, preliminary to the formation of a State Society, and also Clubs in each Captain's District, for the promotion of the agricultural, mechanical, manufacturing and commercial interests of the County and State. It is necessary that this ball should be started and kept moving, until the important design shall be carried out fully.

We are urged to request gentlemen throughout the County, who feel interested in this movement, and who desire to aid in its promotion, to leave their names at the Sentinel office, preparatory to the call of a meeting to form the County Society.

NORTH CAROLINA MINERALS.—The Editors of the Wilmington Journal have seen, at the office of Col. E. D. Hall, a number of specimens of various North Carolina minerals and precious stones, collected by Mr. Jno. Laupeyre, in the counties of Gaston and Rutherford, and by him presented to Col. Hall. The Journal says:

"Among these specimens we noticed the following precious stones: Amethyst, serpentine, rutile, beryl (identical with the emerald), gold in quartz, lazulite and chalcedony. There were also garnets (both precious and common), sulphate of copper and gold, Iceland spar, argentiferous galena, specular iron ore, sulphate of barytes (largely used in the manufacture of white paint), corundum (used for polishing precious stones and machinery) and black oxyde of manganese, (extensively used for bleaching and dying purposes in the manufacture of sheetings and calicoes.")

These few specimens, says the Journal, alone are sufficient to testify how rich North Carolina is in mineral wealth. We trust the day is not far distant when her productive and rich natural mines will be thoroughly operated and developed. A little capital is all that we need.

ONE CAN READ, now-a-days, in the morning New York papers, the occurrences of the previous day in London or Paris, hours previous to the publication of the Paris or London papers containing the same news! A writer in Figaro (French paper) tells how "at 7 o'clock in the morning, fifty miles from New York," he read an account of the races, on the previous afternoon, for the Grand Prix de Paris, before the Patrie and other papers had distributed their copies in the suburbs of Paris. Truly, we live in an age of marvellous achievement.

THE NOTUS Lieutenant Governor elect of Louisiana is a negro.

The New York Citizen says "there is not a single principle dear to constitutional liberty the Radicals have not been violating, and without excuse, since the close of the war. But it needed the extreme case of this Mr. Woolley, and the extreme action of Gen. Butler in regard to it, to make the quiet people of the North wake up and realize that the last vestiges of their liberty are lost, unless this tyranny can be crushed, and crushed at once—just at the point to which it has succeeded in advancing."

Robert E. Withers, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Virginia, is about 54 years of age. He was Colonel of the 18th Virginia (Confederate) infantry. For the last two years he has been editor of the Lynchburg Daily News. Gen. Walker, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, also served in the Confederate army, and, as Brigadier General, commanded at one time the "Stonewall brigade."

HOW POOR CHILDREN ARE TREATED IN LOYAL AND GODLY NEW ENGLAND.—"I found," says a sworn official, whose duty it was to make examination and report, "one thousand children employed in factories, generally of low condition, ignorant in many cases of their own ages, deprived, in great part or altogether, of the school privileges which the law requires."

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT MEETING.

At a district meeting held in the Court House at Asheville on the 30th ult., Hon. Mont. Patton was called to the Chair, and W. C. Waddell and R. M. Stokes were requested to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting to be to appoint Delegates to represent this Congressional District in the National Democratic Convention, to be held in New York, on the 4th of July next.

Gen. T. L. Clingman, being present, was called on, and, in a short and appropriate speech, urged the people to lay aside all former party prejudices and co-operate with the Democratic party at the North—the only party now organized there for the restoration of the Southern people to their Constitutional rights and liberties—to defeat the Radical party in the Presidential election next Fall. He deprecated the idea of creating dissensions at the South by forming a third party, for trivial and really unimportant reasons, based, mainly, on opposition to, or preference for, party names. The Democratic party at the North proposes to put the Southern white people on equality with the Northern white people, in the Union, and to that party alone can the South now look for relief from the oppression and degradation which the Radical party is now forcing upon them.

Gen. Clingman was followed by N. W. Woodfin, Esq., Capt. N. Kelsey, Col. W. M. Cocke and Col. D. Coleman, all of them urging the hearty co-operation of the Southern people with the Northern Democratic party, for the restoration of our country to peace and prosperity under a sound Constitutional Government. These gentlemen represented the old line Whig and old line Democratic parties of former and happier days, as well as the extreme Union and Secession men of latter days; but they were all now united in one harmonious effort to save our country from that anarchy and ruin which must result from the present policy (outside of the Constitution) of the Radical party. The patriotic sentiments uttered by these gentlemen should have been heard by every honest white man and woman in the country, and certainly deserved a larger audience than was in attendance.

Capt. Kelsey then introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The delegates chosen from counties of the seventh Congressional District, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the National Democratic Convention, to be held in the city of New York, on the 4th day of July next, being met in Convention, according to previous notice, at Asheville, on the 30th of May, A. D., 1868, do

Resolve, That it is expedient that the Democrats and Conservatives of this Congressional District be represented in the said National Democratic Convention.

Resolved, That the exigencies of the American people, of all sections, demand the best efforts of patriotism to save Constitutional liberty, now in imminent peril, from the assaults of Radical Republicanism; and to this end, all patriots, of whatsoever former political opinions, should rally together, with united hearts and efforts.

Resolved, That we joyfully congratulate our countrymen, on the defeat of the Articles of impeachment against the President of the United States; and hail it as a harbinger of hope that there is still left sufficient public virtue in the country to preserve its Constitution and the liberties of the people.

On motion, the meeting proceeded to elect two delegates, to represent this Congressional District in the Democratic Convention to be held in the city of New York, on the 4th of July next; and in case of their inability to attend said Convention, two alternates be also chosen by this meeting. Whereupon

Mr. R. G. A. Love, of Haywood, nominated S. McD. Tate, of Burke, as a delegate, with J. W. Wilson, his alternate.

Capt. Kelsey, of Madison, nominated Hon. T. L. Clingman, as delegate, and Col. W. M. Cocke, his alternate.

These nominations were unanimously confirmed.

Although the meeting was not so large as was expected, it was composed of leading representative men of the District, from all of the old parties, and the greatest harmony of feeling and sentiment prevailed.

On motion the proceedings were ordered to be published in the Asheville News and Farmer, and the Raleigh Sentinel and Wilmington Journal and Star be requested to copy.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The custom of allowing the bride a monopoly of the wedding presents was not adhered to at a recent fashionable wedding in St. Louis. The groom was substantially remembered in a special douceur, the donor of which was the bride's mother. In a silver pitcher was a plain-looking bit of paper, which was found to be, by those who had the curiosity to examine it, a check in his favor for $25,000.

The Jacobin newspapers say the Democrats want somebody as a candidate for President. Right. They do not want a political nobody, whom Wendell Phillips calls a "speaking trumpet" through which such insignificance as Washburne makes himself heard.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $3,655,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $3,120,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $877,909.39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $997,197.03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon. Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT ISSUE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1868.

SENTINEL FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina, under the new dispensation, will convene, we presume, in this city, early in July.—The general impression is that it will continue its session for three or four months.—The Sentinel, being now the only Daily in the city, the public must rely mainly upon it for the daily proceedings of the General Assembly and the daily telegraphic news.

We are anxious to furnish our readers with a full and correct daily account of its proceedings. This will involve considerable additional expense. The employment of two reporters, one for each House, is an expensive operation, where the remuneration is so slender. There is a desire to have full stenographic proceedings, but the usual additional subscription here is so meagre that it would not pay a tithe of the expense.

We shall do the best we can for our readers and the public. The price of the Daily Sentinel to regular subscribers will remain the same, but those who take it only during the session of the General Assembly will be charged $1 per month. This is as low as it can be afforded.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—The proposition for a meeting of the Conservative and Democratic Editors of this State, in this city, on Thursday next, the 18th. inst., seems to have met with such general favor, that we look for a pretty full Convention.

The business to be transacted, we presume, will relate in a great measure to matters connected with the promotion of our cause and the pecuniary interests of the press. It is suggested that all who attend will be at the Yarborough House, at 4 o'clock, P. M., on Thursday next. We regret to learn that our friend Stokes, of the Asheville News, (by the way a most excellent weekly,) will not be able to attend.

DEATH OF DR. HENRY JOYNER.—We announce, with profound regret, the death of this gentleman, which took place at the Lunatic Asylum, near this City, on Friday last. Dr. Joyner was brought to the institution only a few weeks since, in the hope that his condition might be improved by the skillful and experienced treatment which obtains there. His mind had been seriously affected, of late, by his troubles and reverses, growing out of the disasters of the times, and his bodily health had been correspondingly affected. But he sank rapidly and died on Friday, as stated. His remains were carried, on Saturday, to his home in Halifax, for interment.

Dr. Joyner's death is not only a sad, sad bereavement to an afflicted family, but it is a public loss. He was an intelligent, high-toned, patriotic citizen, and had served the people acceptably in many capacities. He was an excellent neighbor, a kind-hearted, liberal gentleman, and a genial, admirable companion. Peace to his ashes!

MARKET IMPROVEMENTS.—We are glad to see that the City authorities have had some desirable improvements made in the interior arrangements of our Market-house. Eight stalls have been erected,—each having a counter, with frame work and hooks for hanging meats, and the whole presenting a very neat appearance. The work was executed by Messrs. Jas. B. Jordan and Wm M. Carter, and is done in workman like and tasteful style.

WHEN we boasted of the superior beauty of the Raleigh girls, a few days since, the Charlotte Times entered the lists, at once, in favor of that city.

We intimated, a few days thereafter, that there were finer babies and more of them, in Raleigh, than in any other place of its size, and for that the Petersburg Index hauls us over the coals.

Friends, let's compromise our disagreements on a common platform—thusly:

1. Resolved, That the ladies are all charming.

2. Resolved, That babies are all great institutions, and universally pretty, chubby and—so forth.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Dr. C. H. Jordan, of Norfolk, Va., (lately of Person Co., N. C.) treats diseases of the throat, windpipe and lungs, female complaints, skin diseases, &c., with eminent success. See Card.

Liverpool fine Salt: McIlwaine & Co., Petersburg, Va.

Louisburg Female College: The Fall Session of this excellent institution commences on the 13th. day of August. We refer the public to the announcement of the Rev. T. M. Jones, President.

We need not call attention to the advertisment of Ames' Great Combination Circus, Menagerie and Aviary. The "picters" speak for themselves. This is said to be the finest exhibition of the kind anywhere in the field.

TRINITY COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

We regret that it was not in the power of either of the Editors to attend the Commencement at Trinity, last week. We hope, however, to be able, very soon, to give our readers a full account of the exercises from a competent pen. We are pleased to hear that the occasion was brilliant and imposing.

We learn, from the Charlotte Times, of Saturday, that Bishop Doggett's Sermon to the Graduating Class, on Wednesday morning, was an effort of great power and eloquence.

The annual address, by the Hon. John Kerr, in the afternoon of the same day, is spoken of in the highest terms of admiration, as being, in all respects, equal to the fame of the distinguished orator.

At night, there were interesting declamations by the Sophomore Class.

On Thursday morning, the exercises by the Graduating Class took place, and all the young speakers are represented to have acquitted themselves in a manner creditable to themselves and reflecting honor upon the Institution, its able President and Faculty.

In the afternoon, a fine address was delivered before the Alumni Association by J. Q. Jackson, Esq., of Greene Co., a graduate of the Class of 1861.

Messrs. K. P. Battle and Seaton Gales, of this City, were among the new nominations (six in number) for Trustees of Trinity, made by the Board.

P. S. Since the foregoing was written, but at too late an hour for this issue, we have received a lengthy and glowing description of the Commencement. It shall appear to-morrow.

NORTH CAROLINA DELEGATION.

We are requested to state that ample accommodations have been secured for the North Carolina delegation to the National Democratic Convention, on the 4th. of July, at the New York Hotel. This is one of the best Hotels in the City—a general rendezvous for Southern gentlemen. That, then, will be North Carolina Headquarters.

THE TYPE-SETTER.—We were pleased to witness, on Saturday, the manipulation of a new machine invented by Mr. F. G. Foster, of this county, for setting type. It exhibits considerable mechanical genius, though the machine is quite simple. Mr. F. has some knowledge of the practical operations of a printing office, though he is not a regular compositor. The model exhibited to us only presents a portion of the machine, though what has been constructed by Mr. F. shows the practicability of operating the entire instrument. The front of the instrument resembles a writing desk, without the inclined plane, with the doors to the pigeon holes closed. The type used by the operator are all arranged, as it were, in the pigeon holes concealed from view, embracing the Roman letters most convenient, with points, spaces and quads, then the caps and the italics. The boxes containing the types are all connected, by wires and keys, with the lower or desk portion of the instrument, where the keys are arranged and manipulated like the keys of a piano, upon which are noted each letter, point, space or quad which the operator needs. The key of the letter desired is touched, and quickly it is brought to the face of the instrument, when it falls into the stick. This operation is very quickly performed, the power of the instrument being supposed to equal the capacity of six compositors.

The invention of a type setter has been repeatedly attempted, and several of them have been put in operation in this country, but we believe they have generally been confined to book-offices. There is an important difficulty, which has not been overcome in any of these inventions, and that is, while many of them set type with great facility, yet all of them fail to justify the line. This has to be done by a hand after the type are set.

This invention does great credit to the genius of our young countyman, and is the more remarkable, as it is the invention of his own brain,—he never having seen or read of the various machines invented, before he devised the plan of his own. We hope that he may be able to bring his machine to such perfection as to render it valuable to the profession. Such an invention may lessen the demand for compositors, but the supply now exceeds the demand, and we shall not regret it, if it shall lead to the direction of the numerous, intelligent men, who belong to the profession of printers, to other more remunerative and more healthy employments. Mr. F. intends going to Washington to obtain a patent.

"Hark! Hark! the dogs do bark,
The beggars have come to town."

Now that there is a pretty well assured prospect that the new regime will go into operation very shortly, the "faithful" are beginning to flock to this city, to be in at the opening of the game, and with an eye to an early grab at the spoils. They come by every train—big expectants and little expectants—black and white—

"some in rags and some in jags,
And some in velvet gowns."

Some tremendous log-rolling has already commenced for the Senatorships, and the fight thereanent promises to grow "fast and furious." General Abbott is earliest in the field, we believe. Pool and the old General would do well to hurry up.

DIPLOMATIC "PUNISHMENT" FOR DUELING.—In compliance with Mr. Seward's request, the Prussian government has re-called Baron Kusserow, first private Secretary to the Prussian legation, who fought a duel a few weeks ago with Gen. Lawrence. In Mr. Seward's note to the Prussian minister, after announcing that Gen. Lawrence had been recalled from his mission to Nicaragua, the Secretary of State expressed his regrets at being placed in such a position as to be compelled to ask the Prussian government to manifest its disapproval at his conduct in participating in this duel. Instead of censuring Baron Kusserow, however, a dispatch has been received from Berlin by the resident minister that Baron Kusserow be, and he hereby is, promoted to the rank of first Secretary of legation in London," and that Count Lottum, Kusserow's second, is to remain here as first Secretary until his successor shall be appointed.—Washington Correspondence.

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.—As well as we can gather from the views expressed by the various classes of Radicals, we may infer that the success of the Radical party is dependent chiefly upon carrying out the following "loyal" projects:

1st. The disfranchisement of the Southern whites.

2d. The elevation of the Radical negro to power.

3d. The mobbing from the polls of Democratic negroes.

4th. The Dry Tortugas for Southern Democrats.

5th. The bastile for witnesses who will not testify to suit Butler.

6th. To make Chief Justice Chase and the Senatorial "traitors" odious, and to place their names on the "Roll of Infamy."

7th. To make recanting rebels respectable, and to place their names on the roll of saints and martyrs.

8th. To silence the "Copperheads."

9th. To gag conservatism.

10th. To banish the Jews.

11th. To maintain the Freedmen's Bureau and military commissions.

12th. To make a general auto da fe of the Catholics.

An adherence to every article of this creed will be considered, in the new dispensation, the true test of Radical orthodoxy. When all its requirements shall have been carried out, the Radical party will stand a reasonable chance of retaining power, and it may be considered that "it is the will of the people," if any people shall then have been left, that General Grant shall reign in "peace," and that Dr. Breckinridge shall be regarded as the Apostle of "peace."—Louisville Journal.

The Radical papers felicitate themselves on the fact that it required only ten minutes for Gen. Grant to write his letter of acceptance! We know of several school-boys who could have written a better one in half the time, without the necessity, as seems to have been the case with Gen. Grant, of a week's previous incubation.

VALUABLE MACHINE.—A new machine has been put in operation here, by means of which a mean dog thrown into a hopper, after passing through sundry manipulations, comes out a first class Scallawag, ready to skin a cow, steal a beet or vote for the Constitution—the latter being by far the meanest of the three operations.—Lynchburg News.

Soldiers in national military asylums are denied the right of receiving and reading Democratic newspapers, subscribed for by themselves, and paid for with their own money.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is reported to be in favor of Chief Justice Chase's election as President.

It is suggested that Grant quit smoking, as he is already sufficiently "under a cloud."

WASHINGTON, June 13, P. M.

HOUSE.—A Bill relieving Samuel Carter, of Texas, as a Bureau functionary, passed.

Logan gave notice that he would, on Monday move a Committee to locate the Capitol elsewhere, in consequence of the disloyal feeling among the people of Washington.

Julian introduced a Bill, relative to lands in the "rebel" States, sold for Federal taxes. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

The Tax Bill was resumed. An amendment, taxing Bank circulation one per cent. per annum, passed. Also one fourth of one per cent. per month on Government deposits in Banks. An amendment exempting Savings Banks was stricken out. An amendment taxing United States bonds held by Banks, two per cent, was lost—25 to 75.

The Insurance tax was extended to Life Insurance.

Telegraphs are taxed three per cent. on gross receipts. Express Companies two and-a-half per cent.

Adjourned.

SENATE:—One hundred and twenty-six citizens of Colorado protest against admission—the population being too sparse and the persons claiming Senatorships not being the choice of the people.

A bill amending the act of 1804, declaring crimes mentioned in that act not punishable, unless the persons were indicted within five years of the offence, passed.

The Washington election was discussed all day, and the bill passe which, in effect, seats Bowen and gives the Radicals a majority on joint ballot.

The Senate then went into Executive Session and adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 13, P. M.

Secretary McCulloch responds to Commissioner Rollins, whose resignation is again returned:

"This communication is partial, because it attributes the present deranged condition of the Internal Revenue service to the removals and appointments made by the President; while it must be clear to the mind of the Commissioner that this demoralization is attributable, in part, to the antagonism between the executive and legislative branches of the government, which has prevented harmony of action between them in regard to appointments and to the tenure of office act, but mainly to the high duties upon distilled liquors, tobacco, &c., which have created an irresistible temptation to fraud, on the part of revenue officers, as well as on the part of manufacturers, dealers and others.

It is stated that the numerous recommendations of the Commissioner for removals of Assessors and Collectors, even for the grossest misconduct, had been almost always disregarded, while the truth is that, in all cases in which recommendations for removals were accompanied by evidence of incompetency or misconduct on the part of the officers, the recommendations were promptly responded to by the President.

It is unjust and disrespectful to the President, because the records of the Bureau show, that the falling off of the revenues, in the Districts in which removals were made by the President, in 1867, was not comparatively greater than in the Districts in which no changes took place; that, in fact, the revenues of the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1867, during which the removals were made, were entirely satisfactory, coming up very closely to the liberal estimates of the department; while the demoralization of the service and the decline of the revenue have chiefly occurred during the present fiscal year, long after the officers removed by the President had been reinstated, or others, whose nominations had been approved by the Senate, had taken the places of the appointees of the President.

It was for these reasons, and no other, that the communication could not be received and was returned to the Commissioner. The return of it is also justified by the fact that copies of it were sent to the press, before it was handed to the Secretary.

It must, therefore, have been intended for the public, rather than for the files of the Department.

(Signed) HUGH MCCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The Senate refused to sustain the President's suspension of William James, Internal Revenue Collector at Richmond, Virginia.

This action reinstates James and ousts Gen. Mulford. Indictments are said to be pending against James, which the Treasury Department will now push.

The Mayor ad interim called the Council together, to-day. Finding the chambers locked, they met in the adjoining building, and passed a resolution, requiring the officers of the Bank, where corporation funds are kept, to honor no drafts at present.

FROM FLORIDA—INAUGURATION OF GOV. REED—"TAKING TIME BY THE FORELOCK."

TALLAHASSEE, June 13, P. M.

It is stated that Harrison Reed, the Radical Governor, has been sworn into office and delivered his inaugural address. The Legislature attempted to meet, but had no quorum.

The military authorities insisted that the reorganizers should wait till Congress had passed the Omnibus bill.

Reed was sworn in by Judge Boynton, of the United States Court.

His inaugural was brief—and particularly exceptionable.

ODE.

It chanced on a beautiful Summer night,
When the moon was young, when the stars were bright,
And the blossoms slept in the tender light,
And dreamed of the zephyr's sighs,
That a wondrous spell in our home was wrought—
Of hopes and fears and bewildering thought,
By a fairy flower that an angel brought
From the gardens of Paradise.

The south wind fluttered its perfumed wings,
And essayed the song that the bulbul sings;
And the fire-fly sparkled in mystic rings,
Like lamps at a fairy ball;
The young leaves, whispering sweet and low
In a tongue that only Dryads know,
Made love to the waves that danced below
To the chant of the waterfall.

The [illegible] on the tented fleet,
While their white sails spun and sails at rest,
Or floated along in an idle quest
Of some bright Elysian isle;
And fairy gondolas here and there,
Moved down the streams of purer air,
And mocked their prows to the shadowy stair
Of some Gothic palace-pile.

So the hours of that summer night were told,
The starlight faded from river and wold,
And morning, in garments of purple and gold,
Awakened the sleeping earth;
But the cherub form, with its face so fair,
Crowned with a glory of golden hair—
Like the morning sunshine gleaming there—
Still nestled beside our hearth.

BASE BALL—A STARTLING DISCLOSURE.

BY JOHN QUILL.

[From the Philadelphia Sunday Transcript.]

I have a terrible revelation to make.—Who would have thought that in this very community there is a band of men who are leagued together for the purpose of doing deeds at which angels might well weep, and at the recital of which the hardest man would shudder, and tear his hair out by the handful? Why nobody.

But it is so!

Listen.

Upon my return from the South, where I had my interview with the Kuk Klux Klan, I was waited upon by my friend, Felix O'Dowd, who made the following statement, which I hasten to give to the public, so that people may prepare to defend their altars and their fires, strike till the last armed foe expires, and keep out of the green graves of their sires, thus saving funeral expenses, and sustaining the healthy reputation of the city.

"Do you know," said Mr. Felix O'Dowd, "what all these base ball clubs are for?"

"Why, to amuse young men who have a fondness for working very hard gratuitously, of course," said I.

"Ha! ha!" laughed Felix, wildly, "not so; let me whisper it to you.

"THEY MEAN BLOOD!!!!!"

"I board with the Secretary to the Tom-Tit Club, and in the silent watches of night before last, I saw him rise up off of his couch, go to the bureau, read a lot of papers, run his fingers through his hair with a wild and desperate air, draw his razor across his throat three times, sigh deeply, and return to bed.

"I examined these papers next day, I tell you these base ball clubs are parts of an organization which is sworn to rise up and slaughter every Republican in these United States before next fall, so as to increase the Democratic majority. They are Kuklux Klanners in another shape. They are going to deluge this land with blood. They intend to begin with the able-bodied men who are liable to the draft, and then take all the boys under twenty-one and slaughter such as have Radical proclivities.

"Oh, I tell you undertaking business will prove profitable next fall. Holders of coffins will become opulent. Don't sell short in cemetery lots if you wouldn't become a beggar. Buy in all the tomb-stones you can get your hands on."

"Can this be true?" I asked.

"Worse," said O'Dowd, "even worse than this. They will next assault all the orphan asylums, and putting the managers to the sword, they will take the fatherless children and educate them as Democrats! Democrats, I say, and teach their childish voices to shout the battle cry of the unterrified."

"Felix, you have been imposed upon. It cannot be that——"

"This base ball business is a swindle," said Felix, "a blind, a base-ball deception. They merely go out and profess to play, so as to develop their muscles, for the terrible deeds which they are to do. It is all fixed. The organization moves like machinery. Each one has his appointed work. The 'catchers' will go around with a lasso and rope in stray Republicans, then the "pitchers' will pitch into them. The "short stop' is to murder his victims quickly, and put a short stop to their misery. The 'long stop' is to torture them on the rack—devilish engines in the shape of hat-racks, which they all have ready in their houses."

"Felix, this is too horrible for——"

"The 'scorers' are to go around and pick out the victims, scoring them on the back, so that the slayers will know them. The arrangement of 'nines' is also suspicious. Nine has always been a mysterious number. It is determined, also, that each nine is to elope with a feminine. This is modelled on the celebrated action of Romulus in the case of the Sabine women. If you recollect, Rome got up and howled on that occasion. Polygamy is to be allowed when the slaughter is over."

"There must be some mistake here, Felix——"

"'Out on a foul' means to hit men on the head without warning, and launch them into eternity. I know all their secrets. 'To catch on the first bound,' means that some men are to be completely tied with the lasso before the crowd rushes out on them. 'Out on a fly' refers to the manner in which those who endeavor to escape by running will be treated. They will be shot dead in their tracks."

"Felix, you must see the mayor about this instantly."

"'A home run' is when some frantic Republican rushes to his home and seeks refuge in the bosom of his family. These will be boiled in red-hot oil, and their skeletons sold to Democratic medical schools.—'Match games' are those where bodies of men have barricaded themselves in houses. The buildings will be undermined, the cellars filled with gunpowder, and the whole concern touched off with a slow match."

"You are certainly the victim of some wild delusion, Felix," I said.

"No I'm not, I tell you. I know them. Those sticks they call 'bats' will be used to brain thick headed Republicans with. They are poisoned at one end, and when they sink into your skull you are a goner without doubt."

"O pshaw! this cannot possibly be, (you know."

"And you know those balls which these fellows have, sometimes, in case? Well, they are all filled with nitro-glycerine and Greek fire, and they will be thrown into Republican mass meetings. They are warranted to kill six hundred men apiece. I know the man that makes 'em."

"Oh, you are excited; lie down and try to get a nap," said I. It will soon wear off."

"The spikes in their shoes are intended to stamp on a fellow when a base-baller gets him down and has to wait for help. The spikes run through him and pin him to the pavement, you understand. That's what they mean by 'innings' when they get one of those things. Haven't you—"

"Felix, my boy, you have been grossly deceived. It can't ——"

"Haven't you noticed those fellows often when they were playing, go to one side and drink something out of a tin cup or flask? Well, that was blood!—hot blood!! they do it to make them fierce and cruel.—They are at work now, all through this town, I tell you. They daresn't do anything openly yet, but their infernal work has begun. They operate at night. They don't walk—they flit. Each man has wings. That's what 'bat' means; they fly around and steep their hands in gore. You can often hear their peculiar cry. Every man has a deep voice. When they yell it is a base bawl. That's what they take their title from."

"Felix, you don't seem well. This can ——"

"You recollect all those railroad accidents that have occurred lately? all those coal oil explosions, and earthquakes, and dog-bites, and fires, and cases of bilious fever? Well, that's their work. That's what they're at. I tell you that there won't be a solitary Republican alive in this town on the first of next September. That's so, now. I know; I know that—"

"Felix, this is terrible."

"That they've got grips and pass words, and all that sort of thing, and every time a club goes out of town under the pretense of playing match games, they stop and examine all the railroads preparatory to ripping them up, and cutting the telegraph wires. If you leave home next summer you'll never come back, mark my word."

And Felix O'Dowd withdrew and left me to meditate upon this fresh horror.

I have asked myself over and over again can this be? and the answer has always been, yes. It is time this community was alarmed and made to understand its perilous position. By placing these facts before them I have done my duty, and probably will be sacrificed for it by the first base-ballist I see. But I am courageous and self sacrificing. This thing must be put down, and I am ready to take the consequences of my devotion, and to save my fellow men at the risk of my life.

N. B. If any of my fellow-men find their hearts overflowing with gratitude, and wish to get rid of their property before the final catastrophe comes, a line sent to this office will reach me.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties,

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
